

MusicFrenzy

Greg Lake

Greg Lake, who was an integral part of both King Crimson and Emerson, Lake, and Palmer, is touring this year as he brings his "Songs of a Lifetime" tour to cities across the country.

I had the privilege of speaking to him about his tour and his career. His tour is going to bring a cool concept to audiences and in this first clip he explains his idea.

Tour explanation.mp3
MP3 audio file [6.0 MB]

Greg will be putting out an autobiography this year and this next clips explains a bit about what to expect.

Autobiography.mp3
MP3 audio file [3.1 MB]

One of Greg's biggest hit songs is "Lucky Man". In this clip he discuss the song and how it came to be.

Lucky Man.mp3
MP3 audio file [3.7 MB]

Having been a songwriter, bassist, guitarist, vocalist, and producer Greg has done it all in the music biz. In this next clip he discusses his preference.

Multiple talents.mp3
MP3 audio file [4.0 MB]

In this clip we discuss the acoustic guitar and the power of instrument. Greg also talks about the importance of meaning in song.

acoustic guitar and song meaning.mp3
MP3 audio file [7.6 MB]

Our interview ended as Greg discussed how honesty in music is at the core of what moves him. He also gives praise to Adele for showing this in her music.

honesty in music Adele soul music.mp3
MP3 audio file [4.2 MB]

Tweet

